Licenses Revoked at Fremont Bar

Fremont Bar will not be able to sell alcohol indefinitely

Fremont - Investigators of the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) today, April 19, 2007 posted a Notice of Revocation at Mangos Sports Bar and Nightclub located at 39148 State Street in Fremont.

The alcoholic beverage license at Mangos Sports Bar in Fremont has been revoked following a lengthy investigation by Fremont Police and ABC. Fremont Police were able to substantiate multiple violations of the California Business and Professions Code for operating a disorderly premises, purchasing alcoholic beverages for resale from someone other than a wholesaler, refilling bottles of alcohol and possession of a contaminated alcoholic beverage for sale. The revocation means no alcoholic beverages will be sold at this location for at least one year.

The investigation was a result of numerous citizen complaints about the bar.

Any person or group of individuals who applies for a new license at either one of these locations will be subject to a background investigation by the California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control and their application will also be reviewed by local law enforcement and city planners.

ABC is a Department of the Business, Transportation and Housing Agency, which is under the direction of Secretary Dale E. Bonner, a member of the Governor's Cabinet.
